

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor
stands in the way of sinners,
nor
sits in the seat of scoffers;
but
his delight is in the law of the Lord, and
on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,
its leaf does not wither.
In all that he does, he prospers.
The wicked are not so,
but
are like chaff that the wind drives away.

Therefore
the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor
sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
for the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
but
the way of the wicked will perish.
